Announcement.

We feel proud of our privilege, as well as our duty, to call the attention of the public to the ninth annual exhibition of our Anderson County Fair, and that it will be conducted for the general good of all classes, and not for individual gain. In compiling and presenting the Premium List, we have diligently sought to attract to the Fair exhibitors and visitors from all sections of the country, a high degree of pleasure to the visitors and a profit to the exhibitor. Our exhibition is not sectional, but competition is invited from all sections of the country.

The ladies, we trust and believe, will show their appreciation of our efforts to benefit our country by bringing to our Floral Hall specimens of their handy work and all things that make our homes happy.

Our thanks are due and are hereby tendered to all our patrons of the past, and hoping we may have your patronage again. With a cordial welcome to all in every walk of life,

We remain yours,

C. R. LOWE, President.

Rules and Regulations.

1st. The Fair will open on Tuesday, Sept. 7th, 1897, and continue four days. The gates will be opened from 8 o'clock a. m., until 6 p. m. All officers and employees are requested to be at their posts during these hours.

2nd. Every animal and article for exhibition must be entered before 9 o'clock Tuesday evening of the Fair, and be on the Fair grounds Wednesday morning in time for the stock to join the procession.

3rd. Every premium, animal and article placed on exhibition will be retained until Friday, 4 o'clock p. m., or forfeit their premiums, unless permission is granted to persons from a distance. All animals will be permitted to be taken off the grounds at four o'clock p. m., each day, but must be returned by 9 o'clock a. m., next morning.

4th. No person, except the awarding committee on duty and officers of the Association, will be allowed inside of the arena while the exhibition is going on.

5th. An entrance fee of 10 per cent. of the amount contested for will be charged persons, except in the Ladies' Department, which will be free to all, except for special premiums. Two entries will be required on special premiums, that is, if but one person makes an entry, one other entry fee will be charged that person.

6th. The Secretary's books will be open in his office to receive entries from the 1st of August until 4 o'clock Tuesday evening of the Fair. Entries can be made by letter or agent. (Please make your entries as early as possible.) The Secretary's books cannot be examined by any but the proper officers of the Fair.

7th. Tickets 25 cents per day. Children between 10 and 15 years old, 15 cents. Gate checks and return tickets. Persons can pass out at any time.

8th. No premiums will be paid on articles or animals not named in this premium list.

9th. No premium will be paid to persons who did not attend the Fair.

10th. No animal will be allowed more than one premium in the exhibition ring except for sweepstakes or special premiums.

11th. All persons entering stock for exhibition will be required to have them inside the arena within five minutes after called for or be ruled out.

12th. No person will be allowed to exhibit Bulls without having them under the control of a groom.

13th. The Secretary will not receive entries on articles for exhibition Hall after 12 o'clock the second day.

14th. The Association will use all reasonable means to prevent accidents but will not be responsible for any that may occur.

Members of the press, officers of Fairs, and ministers of the gospel, are cordially invited.

(On a certain occasion one said.)

Oh, look here Jim, change your route, and we will go to the Strater House.

Where the amiable guests of every land, come flocking in for the fatted lamb.

The staple articles are cooked to taste, and are on the table every day to waste.

The luxuries are there too tedious to mention, and they attract every guest's attention.

Oh, think of the beef, pork and pudding, and the chicken, turkey and peach dumplings.

Now if you want to eat good cooking, go to the Strater House for all time coming.
